

The following reviews are from the Facebook page of the live show and closely resemble what The Plaza is aiming for:

"Damn entertaining. Quirky and awkward. Recurring bits are funny and the video segments are a hoot!"

– Colin Minor

"Late Night at the plaza is consistently a local treasure. A catch-all collection of the most random ideas immaculately executed from a cast that is genuinely driven from a place of taste and integrity rather than fleeting self promotion. The quality of the shows grows exponentially and fuck it, they started good 3 years ago."

– Victoria Banner

"This bunch of weirdos has made me feel less lonely in Calgary for a few years now. Always something mindblowingly creative, funny or revelatory. Best thing going in Kensington."

– Laura BC

"I remember when life was grey, and death seemed to be the only option. After a night of Mai tai's and slot machines, I stumbled out onto the cold streets of Kensington. Then a miracle happened..... I fell at the doorstep of the Plaza Theatre at exactly 10:00 pm on Wednesday, and they welcomed me with open arms. They didn't point out my smell or the mustard stains on my shirt. They appointed me a seat and said, "You're among family." I don't want to die anymore, and I see the beauty in life. Thank you Late Night At The Plaza every Wednesday at 10:00 pm, thank you."

– Stephen Bosch

"Late Night has been my absolute favourite show for so long! Every episode gets better somehow, and it's something myself and my friends are ALWAYS looking forward to. I would (and have) recommend it to everyone I know. What more could you ask for?? Well.... more Late Night I guess!"
